

A Deadly Destruction

Chapter 1 by Hailey Johnson

I saw him from the distance, his eyes glimmering in the darkness of the cavern. I saw him before he saw me. His body so still, his mind completely unaware, of the presence lingering only ten feet behind him. He didn't know what was to come, he didn't even have a second to think. In a moment's glance he disappeared into the darkness of the fiery cavern he called home.. He had succumb to the weakness, and only he would remember what he had felt, because he felt it in a way only a weak being such as himself would feel.

My name is Emerald, and I am a demigod. My father...you may know his name well, and that is because my father is Hades, also known as the Greek god of hell. Ever since April 12th, 2003 I've been sentenced to hell, or Greek hell. It was the day I became queen, and a day I would never forget. I remember that day like no other, because that was the day I lost my life.
